Artist Heather Chism's Art Shown in the Art Gallery at Suzette Brumleve Memorial Effingham Public Library

The Suzette Brumleve Memorial Effingham Public Library is pleased to showcase the art work of artist Heather Chism. Heather Chism's work will be on display until September 30, 2017.

The exhibition invites the public to view over 20 works of art. Heather's exhibition focuses on portrayals of women with exaggerated characteristics, with emphasis on color and texture in each piece that add dimension and value to each painting. Along with these there are also brightly displayed birds in a similar style. Heather is a mixed media artist, and also creates in clay and jewelry.

Heather Chism's artwork will be displayed in the Art Gallery until September 30, 2017.
