Two New Craft Programs for Adults to Begin in January 2018 at Suzette Brumleve Memorial Effingham Public Library

Two new craft programs for adults will begin at the Suzette Brumleve Memorial Effingham Public Library in the month of January and continue throughout 2018.

Adult Make-n-Take will begin on Monday, January 8 at 10:00 a.m. in the Bauer Computer Room. Creativity is not just for the kids. Stop by anytime between 10 and 11 a.m. to see what you can make. Craft will change each month and all materials will be provided.

Crafting for Kindness begins on Monday, January 22 at 10:00 a.m. in the Workman Room. Every other month the library will choose a new cause to support with this program. You will make and donate the needed items requested by the cause. If you are unable to attend, you can still contribute as information will be available on our website. Donation requests for materials will be posted as well.

No registration required for either of these programs.

If you have questions about the programs call the library at 217-342-2464 x1, email info@effinghamlibrary.org or go online at www.effinghamlibrary.org
