

CHILD PICK-UP POLICY:

The RISE After-School Program will provide supervision for participants until the program ends at 5:30 p.m. At that point, the Effingham Public Library Safe Child Policy (see attachment) will be in effect.

All students in the program, who are over the age of 10 years and meet the requirements of the Safe Child Policy, may remain in the library without adult supervision. However, parents who wish for their child to remain under supervision, must pick up the child by 5:30 p.m.

PICKUP OPTIONS:

- ☐ YES, my child has my permission to sign himself or herself out of the library's after-school program at 5:30 p.m. and to remain unsupervised at the library, as a library patron. My child will follow the Safe Child Policy.
- ☐ NO, my child must be signed out of the program by a parent or guardian, who will pick up the child before 5:30 p.m. on program days.
