Terre Haute Children's Museum Programs at Suzette Brumleve Memorial Effingham Public Library

The Effingham Public Library is pleased to partner with Terre Haute Children's Museum and bring 2 free programs to Effingham, Wednesday, July 24.

At 1 p.m. on Wednesday, July 24, "Set the Stage" invites youth 6 to 9 years old to take on the role of a set engineer. Using models of simple machines and teamwork participants will solve staging challenges, such as on how to make an actor fly, build a set that moves, or lift heavy objects onto the stage.

At 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday, July 24, youth 10 to 14 are invited to experience "Animation Station." Participants will use stop action animation to create a commercial.

Registration is required for both of these free programs.

For further information or to register, the library can be contacted at 217-342-2464 x1, email info@effinghamlibrary.org, or go online at www.effinghamlibrary.org
