Effingham Public Library Closed for Staff Training

The Suzette Brumleve Memorial Effingham Public Library will be closed Monday, Jan. 20, 2020, for an all staff training day.

In the morning library staff will participate in Active Shooter Training with the Effingham Police Department and in the afternoon build on customer service skills with Dawn Mushill and "Customer Service and Beyond."

"Our annual staff training day is critical for our library staff. This is a day when all our staff is able to come together and learn." Amanda McKay, Library Director, explained, "We are grateful that the library board and community allow us the opportunity to take time out to continue to improve our services."

The library will open with regular hours on Tuesday, Jan. 21, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

For more information, contact Johnna Schultz, Assistant Director, at 217-342-2464 or johnna@effinghamlibrary.org.
